Order re Clarifying Effect of Order No. 14, 15, and 16

The Court has today entered Order No. 16: Phase 3 Discovery, jointly submitted by the parties. In separate memoranda, the parties raise a dispute as to whether Order Nos. 14, 15, and 16 are applicable to the personal injury/wrongful death cases or whether those Orders are applicable to the economic loss class actions as well. (Docket No. 1992, p. 1.; Docket No. 1704, p. 2.)

It is, and has been, the Court's intent that these Orders apply to all cases in the docket, whether personal injury/wrongful death cases or economic loss class actions. The Court set a hearing for September 12, 2011 to deal with scheduling of class actions and the unique aspects for such cases, including motions for class certification. (Order No. 14, pp. 5-6.) In the context of focusing in greater detail on the needs of the class actions, some revisions to the provisions of Order Nos. 14, 15, and 16 may be appropriate, but those Orders are intended to have general applicability, certainly the timetables in Order Nos. 14 and 15 and the detailed procedures and timetables in Order No. 16.
